

and þu ſhal reſte it. þu ſay me ſeke þe lord: & alle folkis on whi che my name is depid to helpe. þe lord doyng þis þing ſay fro þe world þe werk of þe lord is þu ſay to þe lord for which þing þu deme he þu of hepen me ben co uertid to god to be not diſſid but to write to he. þu ſay abſey ne he fro deſouligis of manne tis. & fro fornicacioun. & ſtraug lid þingis & blood for moſles of elde tymes hap i alle citees. he þu preche hi in ſynagogis: wher by ech ſabot he is red þane it pleſite to þe apoſtles & to þe el dre me þu alle þe churche: to cheſe me of he. & ſente to antio che þu poull & barnabas. Judas þu was named barſabas. & ſilas þe firſte me among þu þe & wo ten bi þe hondis of he apoſtles & eldre þu þe to he þu ben at an tioche & ſay & ſilice. þu þe of he þe me: greetige for we her den þu ſume wente out fro us.
& troublede þu þu wordis & t nete vplodon þu ſoulis to whiche me we comāndid not it pleſite to us gaderid ito con to cheſe me & ſente to þu þu oure moost dereloupe barna bas & poull me þu ſayen her þu nes: for þe name of our lord ihū cʒt. þu ſay we ſente Judas & ſilas & þu ſay telle þe ſame þingis to þu by wordis for it is ſeyn to þe hooly goost & to us to pitte to þu no þing more of char ge þu þe neteſul þingis: þu ſay abſeyne þu fro þe offrid. þu gis of manne metis. & blood ſtra gid & fornicacioun fro whiche þe kepige þu: ſayle do wel. þu þe ſay þu þe þe let go & came down to antioche: & whiche þe miltitute was gaderid: þu to þen þe epiſtle. whiche whiche whiche þu hadde red: þu ioyede on þe confort & Judas & ſilas. & þu for þu þe þe þe confortid þu þe & cofermyden þu þu many wordis but afen þu þu hadden be þe a lital whiche: þu þe let go of þu þu þe þe to hem þu hadden ſent hem but it was ſeyn to ſilas: to diſſe þu & Judas wente alone to ieruſalim & poull & barnabas diſſe te at antioche. techige & þu þe word of þe lord. þu þe ma nye but afen ſume dayes: poull ſente to barnabas & þe we æfen & viſite þu þu by alle citees whiche we han prechid þe word of þe lord: þu þu he & barna bas wolde take þu þu iohū: þu was named markus but poull preche hi. þu þe þe departid fro he fro þu þe. & þe not he into þe werk: ſayle not be reſeyned & diſſenſioun was mid so þu þe departid at þu þu barnabas took mark & cam bi boot to cyprus. and poull chee ſilas & wente forþ fro þu þu en. & was bitakid to þe grace of

god. & he wente by ſay & cilice.
& cofermyde þe churche: comā dige to kepe þe heortis of apoſ tles & eldre men. ¶ C. 4. ¶ 17.

Ad he cam to derben & ſil trām & lo a dunſple was þu bi name thymothe þe ſone of a Jewelle criſte & of þe ſay hepen & þu þu þe